Day 1 - 3 : Desert grace, Sossusvlei

Day Itinerary

A Safari guide will be ready to pick you up on arrival at Hosea Kutako International airport. . From there it's a long day's drive through the Namib Desert. Oryx and even springbuck might be seen before ending up at the Desert Grace Lodge where the touch of the human footprint has been put to good use. This elegant destination deserves its name "Grace" as this lodge was constructed with the use of the desert's own or recyclables.

Sossusvlei

(sometimes written Sossus Vlei) is a salt and clay pan surrounded by high red dunes, located in the southern part of the Namib Desert, in the Namib-Naukluft National Park of Namibia. The name "Sossusvlei" is often used in an extended meaning to refer to the surrounding area (including other neighbouring vleis such as Deadvlei and other high dunes), which is one of the major visitor attractions of Namibia. The name "Sossusvlei" is of mixed origin and roughly means "dead-end marsh". Vlei is the Afrikaans word for "marsh", while "sossus" is Nama for "no return" or "dead end". Sossusvlei owes this name to the fact that it is an endorheic drainage basin (i.e., a drainage basin without outflows) for the ephemeral Tsauchab River.
